Tinder: An Elegy

Ok, so we’re a little late to the game. We just discovered Tinder this weekend, and boy was it a heady time. The initial rush of making matches wore off as the night progressed, and soon we were left with the crushing loneliness that only a night swiping through pictures of local singles can create. While our exploits on Tinder were both unproductive and superficial (and fed into our compulsive tendencies), they did yield some beautiful conversations.

Here goes:

What are you looking for on tinder?

Hey cutie

Just for some fun hbu

Hey

What is fun

Whats up

What do you think

Nm u

I guess for me fun is a Friday night spent laughing with my roommates about tinder

Samee. Wanna chill?

No not really

But you probably have a very different conception of fun

Damn. Why not

I'm tired

When is the last time you cried

I'll make you feel good :P

That is inappropriate

I think maybe around the end of last summer. You?

Idk what should I know about you

Probably like yesterday

What's special about you

Definitely sometime this week

I love dogs 😊

Oh my gosh! Should I ask?

K so does everyone on this earth

I guess I just feel things a lot
