New-Name November

A few suggestions for more apt titles for the month

- "The Month of the Rotting Pumpkin"
- "Is it December Yet?"
- "Mather-Yale Season"
- "Twas the Month Before Christmas"
- "Month of Darkness"

Musings

- UC and US elections are happening at the same time—which is a funny coincidence because they're both a JOKE!
- Faculty dinner was a great chance to eat chicken in Mather dhall at a table I don't usually sit at.
- I don't get why people are so enthusiastic about Halloween as adults. I thought the great thing about being an adult was that you could dress however you want any day of the year.
- We don't need Halloween as an excuse to put on masks. We do that every day.

NaNoWriMo Ideas

I wrote the first part to get you started.

- It was a dark and stormy night, and I was walking back from Lamont.
- "Why don't you come to my office hours?" asked her TF, Christian Grey.
- "I've never done this before." "I haven't either, but that doesn't mean we shouldn't try."
- It was a typical Friday night for Casey, which meant logging in to Tinder and checking to see if there were any new matches.
- With her inbox finally at zero, Jill remarked, "I can do anything now!"
- Dentists everywhere hate her! This is the story of that single mom who got perfect teeth with one weird trick.
- He opened the spam email from the Cheap Canadian Pharmacy, not expecting that it would be a virtual portal that allowed him to physically enter the internet.
- "Blame it on the a-a-alcohol," crooned T-Pain through the tinny speakers of Mather 407. And blame it on the alcohol he did, the next morning.
- "Let me get this straight... there's a Nigerian prince who just wants to give me his inheritance?"
- This orphaned tiger was put in a pig costume and given to a sow. What happens next will surprise you.
